DOWNTOWN SAN FRANCISCO COMMUTER BART STRIKE OPTIONS FACT SHEET

Muni services in the vicinity of available parking facilities and casual carpool departure points are indicated on the map on the back of this fact sheet. Muni bus routes are indicated with numbers while Muni rail lines are indicated with letters. Adult full fare is $2. Youth and Senior/Disabled fare is 75 cents. Exact change or Clipper Cards are required on Muni vehicles; Muni Metro tickets can be purchased at the Metro vending machines in the subway stations for use at subway fare gates.

In the event of a BART strike, commuters to San Francisco are advised to avoid peak driving periods by working at home if possible (or traveling earlier or later than usual), form a carpool or try casual carpooling, or take an alternative transit service.
