

SFMTA

The San Francisco Municipal Transit Agency (SFMTA)/Muni is hiring! Join the Office of Race, Equity and Inclusion (OREI) as the Equitable Services Manager!

Equitable Services Manager | #9174

Salary: $133,770-$170,742 | Link to Application

Minimum Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university; AND
- Five (5) years of full-time verifiable work experience in either or both of these work areas:
 - Working at a mass transit agency or local, state, or federal Department of Transportation
 - Transportation equity, cultural/community engagement, racial equity, planning (such as transportation planning, city planning, urban design, environmental planning, architecture or urban design), ethnic studies and/or history; AND
- Two (2) years of full-time verifiable supervisory experience (in any sector, including those mentioned above).

- All experiences used to qualify must be reflected in job descriptions (on application) and verification letters (once an employment offer is extended).
- 60% of the test to be eligible for interviews is a multiple-choice questionnaire (Training & Experience (T&E) Evaluation).
- Supervisory experience can come from any job that is detailed in your job descriptions & confirmed through verification letters.
- The five (5) years of required work experience can come from one or a combination of work areas described in the announcement.

- The bachelor's degree can be substituted for additional years of verified work experience.
- A master's degree (in any subject) may be substituted for one year of non-supervisory experience.

Deadline to Apply: Friday, December 10, 2021

All City and County of San Francisco employees are required to be vaccinated against COVID-19 as a condition of employment.

Questions on these opportunities? Email SFMTA HR Analyst, Larry.Dominguez@sfmta.com