

Northeast Mission Working Group Application

The role of the Northeast Mission Working Group is to guide the SFMTA in the development of a curb management plan for the Northeast Mission, bounded by Potrero Ave, Division St, Capp St and 21st St.

The committee will guide the agency in its development of a public outreach plan for the project and will also aid in drafting the curb management plan. Committee members will play an integral role in the project by representing the community and sharing project information with the public.

Applicants will represent the following interests: project area residents, businesses and property owners, non-profit organizations, seniors, affordable housing, homeless/low-income, artists; and people who drive, use transit, walk and/or bicycle.

To apply for membership please complete the application below by Sunday, August 4, 2019 and return to:
