Introduction

On behalf of San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency (SFMTA), Corey, Canapary & Galanis (CC&G) undertook a Mode Share Survey within the City and County of San Francisco as well as the eight surrounding Bay Area counties of Alameda, Contra Costa, San Mateo, Marin, Santa Clara, Napa, Sonoma and Solano.

The primary goals of this study were to:

- Assess percent mode share for travel in San Francisco for evaluation of the SFMTA Strategic Objective 2.3: Mode Share target of 50% non-private auto travel by FY2018 with a 95% confidence level and MOE +/- 5% or less.
- Evaluate the above statement based on the following parameters: number of trips to, from, and within San Francisco by Bay Area residents. Trips by visitors to the Bay Area and for commercial purposes are not included.
- Provide additional trip details, including trip purpose for each trip in the mode share question series.
- Collect demographic data on the population of Bay Area residents who travel to, from, and within San Francisco.
- Collect data on travel behavior and opinions that support other SFMTA strategy and project evaluation needs.

The survey was conducted as a telephone study among 762 Bay Area residents aged 18 and older. Telephone surveying was conducted during August 2015 – October 2015. Interviewing was conducted in English, Spanish, and Cantonese. Surveying was conducted via random digit dial (RDD) and cell phone sample.

Interviews were conducted every day except Saturday. All respondents who didn't answer the initial call were contacted again. Return calls were made during different days and times to give each potential respondent the best opportunity to participate.

Sampling was designed to include about half of interviews with San Francisco residents, and about half of interviews with residents of other Bay Area counties (e.g. non-San Francisco). The methodology of capturing trip details differed slightly for the two populations. Out-of-town visitors, "through trips" (with no stops in San Francisco), and commercial trips were not included in this mode share survey.

For San Francisco residents, mode share was determined by asking respondents for two full days of trip information. Respondents were then asked the specific mode (e.g. car, walk, bicycle, etc.) for each trip taken. This survey design allows capture of detailed mode information for all trips taken by each respondent over a two day period.

Other Bay Area residents were asked about two days of travel into San Francisco from the prior 30 days; these trips needed to vary by travel mode or trip purpose, and respondents reported the number of times they had travel days like those in the prior 30 days.

Not all totals will add to 100% due to rounding. In portions of this report, a dash (-) is used to indicate no respondents answered with the response code listed. The margin of error at the 95% confidence level is +/-3.5% in the total sample (n = 762). For other sample sizes, the margin of error is as follows:

- n = 382. Margin of error = +/- 4.95%
- n = 100. Margin of error = +/- 9.80%

Key Findings

General

- Private auto trips represent slightly less than half (47%) of all trips in San Francisco.
- Nearly a third (30%) of trips by other Bay Area County residents into the City were for work. Over the past two days, 61% of San Francisco residents' trips were nearly evenly split between social/eat out/entertainment/recreation, shopping/errands, or work.
- The relative speed and convenience of driving was the strongest influence in respondent's decision to drive rather than use another mode.

Mode Share

Mode share was determined by collecting trip level information for all respondents. Respondents were asked the specific type of transportation ("mode") used for each trip taken (e.g. car, walk, bicycle, etc.). Mode share percentages are based off the total number of trips (n = 11,467) for all respondents.

Trip Purpose

Over the past thirty days, nearly a third (30%) of trips by other Bay Area County residents into the City were for work, one in five (23%) were for social/entertainment/recreation, and 11% for shopping or errands.

Over the past two days, 61% of San Francisco residents' trips were nearly evenly split between social/eat out/entertainment/recreation, shopping/errands, or work.

* The survey recorded the number of trips taken over the previous two day period for San Francisco residents, and the trips taken over the previous 30 day period for non-SF residents. In total, 2,287 trips were taken by SF respondents over the previous two day period; 9,182 trips were taken by non-SF residents over the previous 30 day period. The percentages above are based on the travel mode (given by respondents) for these trips.

Trip Frequency

For this survey, a ‘trip’ was defined as travel from one point to another – in other words, someone going to work and coming home at the end of the day would have made 2 trips – one from home to work, and a second from work to home.

Among residents of other Bay Area Counties, respondents made an average of 24 trips to, from, or within the City in the past 30 days, with a median of 9 trips.

With this definition, the average San Francisco resident made about 3 trips per day (6 trips over the two-day period).

Mode Choice: Preferred Alternate Mode

20a. If you did not <Mode of trip 1> on your first trip, what would you have done otherwise?

[Surveyor asks open ended, reads from list if asked. Select one response only.]

Respondents were asked to report what transportation mode they would take if the mode they used for their first trip of the day was unavailable.

For people who drove using a private vehicle (either alone or in carpool), two thirds (69%) reported their second choice would be by a mode of transportation not utilizing a private vehicle (either carshare, transit, taxi, biking, walking, or other); 15% percent would continue to travel by private vehicle and 16% would not have taken the trip.

For people traveling by non-private auto modes, half (48%) would shift to private vehicles modes; 37% would continue to use non-private vehicle modes, and 14% of respondents reported they would not take the trip.

	Alternative Mode
	Private Auto	Non-Private Auto	Would not have taken trip	Don't know/ Don't remember
Initial Mode	%	%	%	%
Private Auto	15	69	16	1
Non Private Auto	48	37	14	1

Usage of New Modes: Transportation Network Company (TNC), Chariot

21. Have you tried any of these new travel options? If yes, how often do you use them?

TNC's are the most used of the new travel options with 23% of respondents overall, 28% of San Francisco residents and 17% of other Bay Area residents saying they use it at least monthly.

Of the other newer transit options, 12% percent have tried Car Share; about 3% have tried Bay Area Bike Share, and about 2% have tried Chariot.

Usage of Taxis

21e. And how often do you use traditional taxis?

Other Bay Area residents are about as likely to have tried traditional taxis as San Francisco residents. San Francisco residents are more likely to have used them in the previous month, however (11% vs. 5%).

Motivators for Driving

22. Think about the first time you drove yesterday (SF Residents)/your most recent trip where you drove into San Francisco (Bay Area Residents). Which of the following strongly influenced you in deciding to drive for this trip?

The relative speed and convenience of driving was the strongest influence in respondent's decision to drive rather than use another mode. The availability of parking close to the destination and price of parking were also strong factors

(Individuals represented – SF residents who drove alone or with others yesterday and Bay Area residents who drove alone or with others on a trip)	Total (460)	SF (180)	Non-SF (286)
Percent answering “Yes, strongly influenced my decision to drive”
Driving and parking is faster than other modes of travel (transit, biking, walking)	78%	79%	77%

* Respondents who answered yes to the question “Parking at my destination was free” were not asked this question.

Car Ownership

23. Do you own a car or have regular access to a car through family or friends?

24. Have you reduced the number of cars in your household in the past three years?

24a. What was the primary reason you reduced the number of cars in your household?

While eight out of every ten respondents (81%) own or have access to a car, Bay Area residents are more likely than San Francisco residents to have access to a car.

Almost two in ten respondents (17%) have reduced the amount of cars in their household in the past three years. Lack of use was the most prevalent reason a respondent reduced the amount of cars in their household; but the expense of owning a car and the car's condition were also widely cited.

	Total (762)	SF (382)	Non-SF (380)

SFMTA Travel Decision Survey 2015

Questionnaire

INTRO. This is _____ with Corey Research calling on behalf of the City of San Francisco. We are conducting an important survey to help improve transportation.

1. Are you a Bay Area resident?
  - 1 Yes
  - 2 No (Thank and terminate)

2. In which Bay Area county do you live?
  - 1 Alameda
  - 2 Contra Costa

  - 2 No (Thank and terminate)

SAN FRANCISCO RESIDENTS

(Ask Q4 and Q5, then skip to Travel Choices Section)

4. We are ready to start.

Think about the places you went to yesterday.

> First, we'll ask you the total number of trips you took.

>Then, for each trip, we'll ask about the purpose of the trip - such as work, shopping, or entertainment - and how you made that trip, such as by driving or walking...

> Include any trip to a new location, such as walking to lunch, stopping to get coffee, or going to the grocery store. Count each leg of a round trip as a separate trip.

It may help to get a piece of paper to make a list of all of the places you went
